Police to kick-off National Night Out Aug. 7 Over two dozen community parties scheduled

Police officers and members of the community are joining forces tomorrow, Aug. 7 for National Night Out, an evening of events intended to generate participation and support for local crime prevention activities. Parties will kick off at 6 p.m. in Maple Lawn, where Police Major Luther Johnson, Howard County Executive Allan H. Kittleman and Howard County Council Chair Mary Kay Sigaty will welcome community members to the event.

“National Night Out is an annual demonstration of the department’s strong partnership with the community,” said Chief Gardner. “Residents play an important role in fighting crime and keeping our communities safe. We make it a priority to communicate directly and openly with the public we serve.”

The kick-off event in Maple Lawn will feature live bands, child-friendly activities, corn hole, a dunk tank and displays from local businesses. The police command post, volunteer mounted patrol, McGruff the Crime Dog, and other entertainment will also be available.

In preparing for National Night Out, the police department has helped residents organize over two dozen neighborhood block parties throughout the county. Police personnel and mascots, as well as partners from Maryland State Police, Howard County Sheriff’s Office and Howard County Department of Fire and Rescue Services, will visit neighborhood parties throughout the county, including patrol officers, K-9s, a SWAT vehicle, volunteer auxiliary officers and more.
